Course Notes

NOTES   During 2020 all students were impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. During this period, The University of Western Australia shifted all teaching and learning to an online mode and adapted or delayed delivery of laboratory, clinical, practicums and fieldwork activities. Learning outcomes and assessment frameworks for each unit remained in line with published University standards.

Notes:

Publication of Points - Points for units will only be published from 2005 onwards.

Calculation of GPA - At UWA your grade point average (GPA) is a simple numerical index which summarises academic perlormance in a course. Your GPA is reported on your Statement of Academic Record and published under the studentConoect Progression Link. GPA will only appear on your Statement of Academic Record if you commenced your course from 2005 onwards.

Weighted Average Mark (WAM) - WAM is your weighted average mark for the whole course based on your current achievement. WAM will only appear on your Statement of Academic Record if you commenced your course from 2005 onwards.

Advanced Standing/Credit Units - From 2005, credit units ceased to be recorded with a grade of CU.
